Re: Case 12-02020 In re Residential Capital, Docket Item 7306, Request for Extension of Time

Dear Judge Glenn,

I was willing to comply with the court's order to not file anything further requesting payment unless the situation changed. [Docket item 7210] I believe that the Liquidating Trust's request for an extension of time [Docket item 7306] was so sneaky that it was a game-changer. I concur with Mr. Satterwhite. [Docket item 7332] Had it not been for my diligence, the Debtor Liquidating Trust's motion might have gone unopposed by all Claimants. That would have been a travesty of justice, one achieved by their fraudulent misrepresentation on July 25, 2014 that they had served all unresolved Claimants with notice of their request. They did not serve Claimants until August 1, 2014 and did not extend the deadline for opposition.

I also support Mr. Philip Robinson's suggestion [Docket item 7360, page 2, paragraph 3] that the Debtor be required to use an alternative dispute resolution process. I am likewise prepared to serve on any work-group to aid in this process.

Very respectfully,

Karen M. Rozier [Claims: 4738 and 5632]
